

Este 9 de diciembre se va a celebrar la II conferencia equina organizada por EQUIRA y nos han dado la oportunidad de asistir vía ONLINE, se han puesto en contacto con nosotros y nos han mandado este mensaje para todos:

EQUIRA is the Equine Group of the Students Association of the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine of Lusófona University of Humanities and Technologies based in Portugal, whose main goal is to share knowledge, organize activities and events about equine medicine. We are the only equine group at a national level, and we hope to contribute to the practical and theoretical training of students, as well as valuing national and international professionals.

We are organizing our first international conference with you in our mind! It will be held on the 9th, 10th and 11th December in english via online.

Prices:

- FMV-ULHT students - 8€
- External students - 10€
- Professional - 15€

I would like to highlight that the first 100 registrants have the opportunity to win one year free subscription on vet-Anatomy by Imaios. Here is the link for registration.

In case of any doubt, you can always send us an email to equiconference.equira@gmail.com
